Mound City Bank Appoints Justin Olthafer as Vice President – Chief Information Officer

Mike Phillips, President of Mound City Bank is proud to announce the appointment of Justin Olthafer to Vice President – Chief Information Officer.

Justin began his career at Mound City Bank in 2001 as an Assistant Network Administrator. Over the years, he has taken on increasing responsibility within the bank's Information Technology department. In 2008, he was promoted to Assistant Vice President – Information Technology, where he was instrumental in modernizing the bank's systems, boosting cybersecurity, and improving how technology supports daily operations.

As Vice President – Chief Information Officer, Olthafer will help ensure our banking services remain safe, reliable, and easy to use for our customers.
