Mound City Bank Announces Sarah Imobersteg as Branch Manager of Mineral Point

Mound City Bank is proud to announce the promotion of Sarah Imobersteg to Branch Manager/Personal Banking Officer of its Mineral Point location. A valued team member since 1999, Sarah brings over 25 years of banking experience and a deep commitment to client service and community relationships.

Sarah began her career at Mound City Bank as a Teller (Customer Service Representative) and advanced into the newly created position of Investment Services Assistant. In this role, she developed extensive knowledge in retirement and health savings accounts, becoming a trusted resource for clients managing their IRAs and HSAs.

Her dedication and expertise led to a promotion in 2016 to Personal Banking Officer, where she became a key contact for business clients while continuing to strengthen relationships with individual consumers. Her ability to provide tailored financial solutions and her passion for helping clients succeed have consistently set her apart.

Now, as Branch Manager/Personal Banking Officer, Sarah brings her strong leadership skills and customer-first philosophy to the Mineral Point branch. She is committed to supporting her team, deepening community ties, and ensuring the branch's continued growth and success.

Sarah looks forward to connecting with both new and familiar faces as she leads the branch into its next chapter.
