Mound City Bank Builds New Bank in Mineral Point

Mound City Bank is now open at its newly built location at 615 Dodge Street in Mineral Point. The new full service building features a single story 3,271 square foot facility and another 1,000 square foot basement. The project architect was Tammy Black, Delta 3 Engineering. Brad Bierman, EPIC Construction, Inc., was the construction general contractor.

Mound City Bank came to Mineral Point in 2008 with a branch location attached to Point Foods. Due to business growth in the community, the bank expanded by building its own facility, opening for business on August 16, 2021.

“We are proud to be an independent community bank with over 380 shareholders. We are committed to Mineral Point by offering a full array of financial services including investment services to the community. Our biggest asset is our people,” said President & CEO Donna Hoppenjan.

“Angie Reichling is our new Branch Manager & Retail Lending Officer for your residential real estate, consumer lending and deposit account needs. Joining Angie is Sarah Brindley, Catarina Burnette, Beth Graber and Jodi Jenson in assisting you in your day to day deposit needs. Agricultural Lending, Business Banking and Crop Insurance services are provided by Jennie Pete, our Agribusiness Lending Officer & Crop Insurance Specialist. Tyler Kennicker, Investment Representative is available to assist in reaching your investment and retirement goals,” Hoppenjan added.

Mound City Bank, with its home location in Platteville was founded in 1915 and also serves the market areas of Belmont, Cuba City and Mount Horeb. A public grand opening celebration is planned for September 23 & 24, 2021.
